Note: When your application for financial aid (i.e. FAFSA) is reviewed by your Financial Aid Office, they will determine whether you are eligible for any of these federal loan programs and the amount(s) that you are eligible to receive. You will receive this information as part of your financial aid award letter.
Next Steps

1. If you have not already done so, apply for financial assistance.
   Some schools have school-specific student loan benefits and terms not detailed on this form. Check the Financial Aid Office’s website for information about loans and how to apply.

2. Additional requirement to apply for this Loan - Complete the Self-Certification Form.
   Your Financial Aid Office will supply the lender with the information needed to complete the self-certification form. If you are approved for this loan, the loan terms will be available for 30 days (terms will not change during this period, except as permitted by law).

REFERENCE NOTES

Bankruptcy Limitations
- If you file for bankruptcy you may still be required to pay back this loan.

Promissory Note
- Your promissory note will contain the terms of this loan including information about repayment, default, deferment and prepayment.
