All submissions must include author’s name, e-mail address, postal address, telephone number, law school, and year of anticipated graduation. For published submissions or submissions scheduled to be published, the name and date of publication or anticipated publication should be included. For articles that have or will be published, permission from your publisher to provide a link to the article on the ASECA website at www.secalumni.org will be needed.

Submissions must be received by November 10, 2016. E-mail submissions will not be accepted. Receipt of submissions will be acknowledged by e-mail after all submissions have been received. See ASECA website (www.secalumni.org) for additional information. Questions may be directed to Mitzi Moore, ASECA Executive Director, at info@secalumni.org or 202-462-1211.

Award winners will be invited to attend ASECA’s annual dinner in Washington, DC on February 24, 2017. Travel and lodging expenses for the first place award winner will be reimbursed by ASECA up to $1,000.

ASECA was founded in 1990 by U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) alumni. ASECA was initially formed to continue the camaraderie that existed among ASECA members when they worked together at the SEC. Today its membership is nationwide and international. ASECA is a non-profit charitable organization whose stated mission is to provide the opportunity for education and growth of industry professionals; to promote study and research in the field of securities law; and to educate members on securities law by means of lectures, seminars and publications.
