V-PIIP

VIRTUAL PUBLIC INTEREST INTERVIEW PROGRAM

Review list of employers

on V-PIIP webpage / in CSM. Identify which employers of interest are participating in virtual interviews vs. resume collection.

Virtual Interviews

Submit bids

(applications) through CSM. Your employer rankings (truly) don't matter. Employers will decide whom they want to interview.

Review interview selections in CSM. Accept or decline offers to interview, and schedule interview times.

Conduct interviews

in OPIA's virtual platform for this program.

Materials review

Submit resume and cover letter for review by OPIA adviser (encouraged)

Mock interview

Schedule mock interview with OPIA adviser (encouraged)

Follow up to reiterate interest and ask for a status update, if you haven't heard from employer in 2 weeks after an interview or after submitting materials

Resume Collection

Submit bids

(applications - usually more than just a resume!) through CSM. Employers will decide whom they want to interview and reach out via email with any offers to interview.

Conduct interviews

using employers' preferred virtual platforms, and on their own timetables.

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL

BERNARD KOTEEN OFFICE OF PUBLIC INTEREST ADVISING