

If you have a role in communications, web design or are looking to build your skills in these areas, check out these recommended courses and resources around communications at HLS.

Courses at Harvard

- Introduction to Digital Accessibility

This training introduces and explores basic concepts of digital accessibility and relevant university policies including the Digital Accessibility Policy and the Accessible Technology Procurement and Development Policy.

- Digital Accessibility for Content Creators

This training will introduce learners to digital accessibility, demonstrate its importance, and provide guidance around Harvard's Digital Accessibility Policy. We will discuss best practices for creating accessible web content, and also for updating existing content to make it accessible to all users.

- How to Use Social Media at Harvard

This course focuses on helping all Harvard staff members identify which platforms are appropriate for the Harvard related social media accounts they are managing while abiding by University guidelines and department affiliation at the same time.

LinkedIn Learning

- Creating a Communications Strategy

- Tips for Better Business Writing

Communities & Resources

- HLS Website Colocation Group | Reach out to HLS Communications to join the community of HLS staff who work on the HLS website.
- HLS Social Media Working Group | Reach out to HLS Communications to join the community of HLS staff who have social media accounts with HLS.
- Inclusive Content Creation & Delivery | Check out this resource guide for creating inclusive content.

Questions

Gloria Alonzo
HR Programs Specialist
galonzo@law.harvard.edu
617.495.8636