

If you are looking for a career shift or trying to take the next step up, check out these recommended courses and resources around career development at HLS.

Courses at Harvard

- Harvard Leadership Development Program

A competency-based curriculum comprised of five separate programs to address the unique leadership development needs of employees at all levels: support staff, individual contributors, supervisors, mid- to senior-level managers and University executives.

- Boost Your Networking Confidence

This session will cover key components for successful professional networking, including your elevator pitch, and multiple breakout room opportunities to practice networking.

- Quick Tips for Effective Resumes

A quick and efficient overview of the key elements to consider when creating an effective resume, and an open Q & A to respond to your specific questions about resumes

LinkedIn Learning

- Finding Your Perfect Career Fit

- Leveraging Your Transferable Skills to Drive Your Career

Communities & Resources

- Emerging Leaders Program | An HLS based program that connects, educates, and empowers Harvard Law School staff to grow as effective leaders through one-on-one mentoring, educational sessions, and community service.

- Harvard Resources for Internal Candidates | An assortment of classes and tools available to current staff to help you get ready for your next position

- Networking at Harvard | At Harvard, networking events and employee groups offer opportunities for staff to meet and form connections with others that could result in new career opportunities

Questions

Gloria Alonzo
HR Programs Specialist
galonzo@law.harvard.edu
617.495.8636