

LEARNING LAUNCHPAD

EQUITY, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION & BELONGING

HLS HR

If you are looking to build your knowledge around equity, diversity, inclusion, belonging and anti-racism, check out these recommended courses and resources to begin your learning path at HLS.

Programs at Harvard

- Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging Academy

This six-session curriculum explores diversity, inclusion, identity, and biases, and uncovers how power and privilege impact people, policies, procedures, and practices. Participation in the DIB Academy will increase your ability to contribute to Harvard's mission to be the world's recognized leader in inclusive excellence by fostering a culture where everyone can thrive.

- Workspace Equity Series

An HLS initiative to provide programming around EDIB issues within HLS

- How to Have Difficult Conversations about DIBAR

Learn how to approach effective dialogue at work and facilitate understanding around difficult conversations related to DIBAR.

LinkedIn Learning

- Confronting Bias: Thriving Across Our Differences

- Unconscious Bias

- Cultivating Cultural Competence and Inclusion

- Cultural Competence: Nano Tips

Communities & Resources

- Office for Equity, Diversity, Inclusion & Belonging | Harvard's office dedicated to guide Harvard's culture toward inclusive excellence

- Title IX at HLS | Connect with our Title IX team

- Office for Gender Equity | Harvard's office committed to providing an environment where each of us feels safe to participate fully in University life.

- Anti-Racism Resources | A list of resources to learn how to understand and dismantle racism in the workplace.

Questions

Edgar Filho

HR Equal Opportunity Specialist

efilho@law.harvard.edu

617.384.0329