

If you are a new manager or a manager new to Harvard, check out these recommended courses and resources around management at HLS.

Courses at Harvard

- Universal Manager Training Program \(UMT\)

This training is a multiday program designed to give managers at Harvard everything they need to know and do in their role.

- Managing in a Hybrid Work Environment

This course is designed to help managers learn ways to navigate and maintain any post-pandemic hybrid work environment they are working in. Managers will explore how a hybrid work environment impacts the team dynamic and calls upon new, possibly different ways to manage, communicate, and collaborate. This session will allow for some peer-to-peer discussion and learning about specific challenges from the group.

- Leading People

A two part session that involves a self-paced online module followed by a facilitated session driven by the topics of operating with emotional intelligence, building trust, empowering others, and inspiring collaboration.

LinkedIn Learning

- New Manager Foundations

- Facilitation Skills for Managers and Leaders

Communities & Resources

- Employee Assistance Program for Managers | Check out our EAP's specific support tools for managers.

- Leadership Coaching Services | Talk to your HRBP if you are interested in more personal training through the Center for Workplace Development

Questions

Gloria Alonzo
HR Programs Specialist
galonzo@law.harvard.edu
617.495.8636