

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL

Consortium Agreement

The Student Financial Services Office at HARVARD LAW SCHOOL (home campus) and the Financial Aid and Registrar's Offices at _____ (visiting campus), enter into agreement for purposes of promoting exchange of information and a clarification of financial aid funding for: Student _____ during the _____ academic year, which commences on _____ and ends on _____. This agreement confirms the designations indicated above of which campus is to be considered "Home" (where student intends to graduate) and which shall be considered "Visiting."

Upon the request of the student, the Financial Aid Office at the visiting campus agrees to furnish Student Financial Services at the home campus the costs of tuition, books, fees, room, board, personal expenses, and transportation for the student for the period of attendance at the visiting campus. The visiting campus Financial Aid Office further agrees not to aid the student.

The Registrar's Office at the visiting campus agrees to furnish Student Financial Services at the home campus the total number of credits for which the student has enrolled. The Registrar's Office at the visiting campus also agrees to forward the student's final grades to the Registrar at the home campus. Furthermore, the visiting campus Registrar's Office agrees to inform the home campus of the student's date of withdrawal (if applicable) and any tuition/housing refunds or fees due to the student because of any such withdrawal.
