

International Finance Module Topics and Speakers

1. Introduction
Featuring: Dietrich Domanski, Secretary General FSB: work of FSB
2. Capital/Liquidity
Includes Capital levels, Basel finalization, and stress testing
Featuring Randy Quarles, Vice-Chair of Federal Reserve Board: stress tests
3. U.S. Capital Markets
Includes the SEC's recent rulemaking agenda, public versus private markets, and enforcement
Featuring Jay Clayton, former Chair of SEC: private equity
4. U.S. Banking Markets
Includes the failure of Silicon Valley Bank and recent contagion in the banking sector
Featuring Wilson Ervin, former Vice-Chair Credit Suisse: cross- border resolution
5. E.U. Single Market and Euro
Includes recent economic developments, the Capital Markets Union, ESG initiatives, Brexit, developments in Eastern Europe, and the Stability and Growth Pact reform
Featuring Sir William Blair, former Judge of London's Commercial Court: Brexit
6. Japanese Financial System
Includes developments in the Japanese economy and capital markets, as well as the Kashida plan
Featuring Shinichi Uchida, Executive Director/Head: Monetary Policy, Bank of Japan: deflation
7. Chinese Financial System
Includes the Chinese economy, the crisis in banking and real estate, capital markets reforms, regulatory restructuring, U.S.-China relations
Featuring Dr. Xinghai Fang, Vice Chairman of CSRC: entry of foreign financial institutions
8. OTC Derivatives
Includes swap markets, central clearing, and U.K.-E.U. equivalence concerns
Featuring Chris Giancarlo, former Chair of CFTC: central clearing
9. Asset Management
Includes active and passive funds, concerns about concentration in asset management, the ESG debate, concerns about retail trading and gamification
Featuring William McNabb, former Chairman and CEO Vanguard: index funds and ETFs
10. Fintech
Includes crypto-assets, Stablecoins, and Central Bank digital currencies, recent stress in crypto markets and related regulatory issues
Featuring Tim Massad, former Chair of CFTC: stablecoins