Gifts by Class

Harvard Law School extends its thanks to the many generous alumni who supported the Law School this past fiscal year. These individuals made contributions, including gifts, pledges, and payments on prior-year pledges, between July 1, 2024, and June 30, 2025. We would also like to offer special recognition to those classes that celebrated Reunions in Fall 2024 and Spring 2025. Please note that all gifts made in the past fiscal year are listed in this report.

Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr. Society

The Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr. Society gratefully recognizes the generosity and foresight of our alumni and friends who have established planned gifts, including gift annuities, charitable trusts, pooled income fund contributions, life insurance or retirement plan designations, or bequest and trust provisions to benefit Harvard Law School.

Planned Gift Donors at Harvard Law School

Justice Holmes embodied intellectual achievement, deep integrity, and service to the greater good—all tenets at the foundation of Harvard Law School. Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr. Society members pay tribute to the great legacy of Justice Holmes with thoughtful planning and generosity. They have made a lasting impact upon the Law School by providing invaluable support for scholarship aid, establishing professorships, or designating their funding for unrestricted purposes. Many individuals choose to make a planned gift because it allows them to provide important support for the Law School through their tax, financial, and estate planning.

Planned gifts include:

- Bequests
- Trust designations
- Gifts of real estate
- Charitable gift annuities
- Charitable remainder trusts
- Life insurance and retirement plan designations

For more information, please contact the Planned Giving Office at Harvard Law School at plannedgiving@law.harvard.edu.

A History of Planned Giving at Harvard Law School

Since its founding, Harvard Law School has benefited significantly from bequests, trusts, retirement plans, and life income gifts, which pay an income to beneficiaries and then distribute to the Law School.

In fiscal year 2025, HLS received 27 such gifts, contributing substantially to the long-term financial health of the school and its students.

Be assured that I have Harvard Law School in my heart. It's impossible to describe the scope of its impact on my life, and I will never forget the generous financial aid I received when I needed it most.

2025 Realized Bequests and Trusts

The generous pool of realized bequests received by Harvard Law School this past fiscal year is a tribute to the dedicated alumni and friends who had the vision to include a gift to the Law School in their estate plans. Their bequests solidify their legacy with the Law School and provide great benefits for students and faculty.
